

Isabel Menard

Hockey Background:

Isabel played Intermediate AA for the Ottawa Lady Sens who captured the league championship in 2009 before getting a full scholarship in the NCAA to attend Syracuse University and Boston University. In her senior year, her Boston University Terriers made it to the Frozen Four finishing second. She has played for Team Ontario U-18 for two consecutive years and played on the U-18 and U-22 National Women's Hockey Team from 2008 to 2012. After graduating from Boston U. she went to play in Switzerland for two years in Lugano and Zurich. During her time spent overseas she was one of the lead instructors for the fundamental and novice programs with on-ice skills sessions and camps.

Isabel has gathered most of her experience as an on-ice instructor with Competitive Edge Hockey School since July 2003. Instructing on and off ice skills sessions and week-long camps for players from 7 to 20 years old.

Coaching Experience:

Lebanon Valley College NCAA Division III - Volunteer Head Coach 2017

Appleby College - Head Coach and Coordinator Girls Hockey September 2015 to June 2016

